ABOUT THE RHS THEATRE PROGRAM

The Rigby High School Theater Program is an elite group of student actors dedicated to performing their craft and committed to professionalism, providing the city of Rigby and outlying areas with high quality art, culture, and entertainment. Many RHS Theater Program alumni go on to major or minor in theatre in the university level, and those who do not apply skills they learned in the Theater Program such as a resilient work ethic, creative problem solving, and communication to succeed in the field they choose. RHS Theater Program students have won various local and state awards at District Drama Competition (2nd Place), State Drama Competition (3rd Place in Pantomime, 1st Place in Ensemble Musical Theatre), Idaho Thespian Festival (Idaho Thespian Scholarship, multiple qualifiers for International Thespian Festival), and Idaho State University One Act Competition (Best Actor, Best Ensemble, and Top Three). Proceeds from this fundraiser will go towards furthering the RHS Theater Program's mission of filling Rigby with high quality art and entertainment.

SYNOPSIS | ACT I

In Paris, in the year 1482, a company of actors emerges, intoning a Latin chant with the onstage Choir (Olim). The Congregation begins to recount a story (The Bells of Notre Dame): Dom Claude Frollo and his beloved brother Jehan were taken in as orphans by the priests of Notre Dame Cathedral. While Frollo thrived under the rules of the Church, fun-loving Jehan took up with Gypsies (Roma) and was expelled. Many years passed until one day now-Archdeacon Frollo was summoned to his estranged brother's deathbed. Jehan's dying wish was for his brother to care for his Romani baby. Grief-stricken, Frollo agreed and kept the child, whom he named "Quasimodo" for his non-normative features, secluded in the cathedral bell tower for many years...

GUNNAR CHARLES - QUASIMODO

Gunnar has enjoyed the opportunity to perform in many performing arts such as choir and theatre, but musical theatre has been his favorite by far. His debut character on stage was Shaw Moore in Footloose which he enjoyed immensely. Another role he adored was Gleb Vagonov in Anastasia. The challenging high-notes along with the emotional depth inspired his love for the role. Gunnar also had the privilege of performing in The Sound of Music as the complicated role of Rolf! He loved the grit and passion that the community demonstrated while pushing through COVID to perform the show. In this year's fall musical, Addams Family, Gunnar had the opportunity to perform as Lucas Beineke, a complicated young man who loves deceit, dissection, and Wednesday Addams. This time around, GUNNAR CHARLES will be performing as QUASIMODO in THE HUNCHBACK OF NOTRE DAME!!!

RAEGAN DAVIS - ESMERALDA

Raegan Davis is so excited to bring the character of Esmerelda to you tonight! Raegan last played Wednesday Addams in the musical Addams Family and has played various other parts in community, high school, and middle school plays. She loves jam sessions and spontaneous dance parties that break out at home! She enjoys hanging out with friends and family, shopping movies, and any outdoor activity. She also loves singing, dancing, and playing the piano and hopes that when you attend our show tonight, the cast is able to take you to "the top of the world" and it turns into a fantastic experience!

ALIZ'E McCALLON - CLOPIN TROUILLEFOU

Aliz'e has been singing since she can always remember! She is a Junior at Rigby High School and Hunchback is her third high school musical, it's also her first supporting role! Aliz'e has been in Footloose and Anastasia and theatre holds a very special place in her heart. When she isn't acting, you can find her snowboarding in the winter or with all her friends in the summertime. She hopes you enjoy the show and let the show take you through the mystics of Notre Dame!

CONNOR MOORE - DOM CLAUDE FROLLO

Connor Moore is a senior at Rigby High School. He plays dnd and looks at memes after taking care of his homework. He is playing Claude Frolo.
